

Annual County Brunch

(see also Payments)

Patron [members of the Democratic Forum are entitled to] . . .

- Two complimentary tickets to the annual State of the County Brunch<sup>1</sup> . . .

Benefactor [members of the Democratic Forum are entitled to] . . .

- Two complimentary tickets to the Annual State of the County Brunch<sup>2</sup> . . .

Sponsor [members of the Democratic Forum are entitled to] . . .

- One complimentary ticket to the Annual State of the County Brunch<sup>3</sup> . . .

Policy on Democratic Forum Membership Programs,
Adopted by the Montgomery County Democratic Central Committee, February 7, 1995

Section 1. Recommendations.

The . . . Annual County Brunch Committee will . . . submit a proposal to the Central Committee recommending the cost of tickets for [the Annual County Brunch] . . . In making its recommendations, the Annual Brunch Committee should consider keeping the tradition that Brunch volunteers for a set minimum number of hours (who are members of the Montgomery County Young Democrats) be able to purchase their tickets at cost.

Section 2. Decisions.

After considering the recommendations of the . . . Annual Brunch Committee, the Central Committee will set the price of tickets for . . . [the] event.

Section 3. Superseded Policies.

This policy supersedes the policy on MCDCC tickets for the Annual County Brunch adopted by the Central Committee on February 7, 1995.<sup>4</sup>

Policy on Spring Ball and Annual County Brunch Tickets,
Adopted by the Montgomery County Democratic Central Committee, September 20, 2001

---

<sup>1</sup> This event was originally known as the “State of the County Brunch”, but became the “Annual County Brunch” starting in 1999, at the request of the County Executive; see the December 8, 1998, and the January 12, 1999 minutes of the Montgomery County Democratic Central Committee.

<sup>2</sup> See footnote 1.

<sup>3</sup> See footnote 1.

<sup>4</sup> The policy of February 7, 1995 provided that “Members of the Central Committee are to be admitted at cost.”